Response to Arguments

1. Applicant's arguments, see page 6, filed 2/9/06, with respect to the rejection(s) of claim(s) 1-11 under Schwanz et al. have been fully considered and are persuasive. Therefore, the rejection has been withdrawn. However, upon further consideration, a new ground(s) of rejection is made in view of Bukosky et al. (6749325).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

2. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

3. Claims 1,2,4-6,8-10, and 12-14 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Bukosky et al. (6749325). Re claims 1 and 8, Bukosky et al. shows in Fig.7; an exterior mirror "10" for vehicle having a lamp with a window "51" and a reflector "71" that reflects light toward the window "51" with a LED light source "60" that emits light toward the reflector "71" and is arranged in such a manner that the light from the light source does not illuminate the window directly. Re claims 2 and 10, note the chassis is a directional garnish "53" and the windows "51" are displaced from the surface of the mirror in a direction of movement of the vehicle as in turning in the direction signaled by the directional garnish as per Fig.6. Re claims 4-6 and 9, note that the LEDs "60" are surface mounted on a flexible circuit board (see col.6, lines 64-65). Re claims 12-14, note in Fig.6 that each window "51" has a corresponding LED "60" thus forming multiple LEDs that do not directly illuminate the window "51".

Allowable Subject Matter

4. Claim 11 is allowed.
5. Claims 3 and 7 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.
